NAYA- Native American Youth and Family Center

nayapdx.org

The Native American Youth Center (NAYA) is a family of numerous tribes and voices who are rooted in sustaining tradition and building cultural wealth. They provide culturally-specific programs and services drawing on the strengths of staff and volunteers to provide inclusive programming for Native Americans from infant to Elder.

Youth Advocate Mandy Owen, mandyo@nayapdx.org has been assigned to our school and will be supporting Bridlemile. Her goal is to assist Native American/Indigenous youth, whether they are self-identified or enrolled with a federally recognized tribe, with the following (if applicable):

- Meeting with the youth on a weekly-basis
- Tutoring
- Teaching good study habits
- Providing additional opportunities to build skills
- Able to gain access to resources and existing supportive caring relationships
- Build on youth's strengths
- If applicable, explore youth's cultural heritage through a variety of activities and service-learning opportunities.

Attached are some flyers from the Native American Youth and Family Center. The first flyer explains the Advocacy program and the other two flyers are for NAYA events in our community.
