Student and Public Comment

Henry Chase: student at Pioneer, stated he wrote to the Board in December, but only one Board member responded. Pioneer needs to stay where it is. If the kids at Pioneer could be in General Education, they would. At Pioneer, all the students and teachers are on the same floor and in the same space. If one group needs help, another group is there and available for them. Why were Rice and Applegate chosen? The kids will be separated from their friends.

Beth Blumklotz: Special Education Bus Driver, stated that they transport the most fragile students. Previously, she had shared her concerns with the Board; it's been several months and the Board has been silent regarding their contract negotiations, which has had a negative tone. The bus is the safest way to get a child to school.

Laura Moulton: Rigler is not a school with high test sc

Danielle Pacifico-Cogan: parent of a Pioneer student, informed the Board that they should not start collaborating in the 4th quarter. How is placing special needs students in buildings with no amenities acceptable? What if you offered a school like that to black students? The proposal to move Pioneer students is asinine and you should be ashamed of yourselves. Another bad example was placing a segregated Special Education classroom under a recently renovated library at a High School. She has received no communication from the District on the Pioneer proposal. This was a blatant act of discrimination.

Scholle McFarland: Chair of TAGAC, stated that the Board would hear a Division 22 Report later in the evening. For the second year in a row, the District has reported itself out of compliance for TAG students. The Board needs to budget for TAG curriculum.

Jeannie Curtis: secretary at Pioneer, stated that her heart is broken. The Board was moving Pioneer to place another program in their building (ACCESS). She is embarrassed by the Superintendent who has treated administrative staff poorly and made all plans behind closed doors. The Superintendent was the one who was driving the dismantling of Pioneer. He was served a petition signed by 5,000 supporters to keep the Pioneer Program together. It was obvious that only privileged student
