

Director Scott stated that he wanted to make it possible for auditing the board. Kari Guy said there was a risk at the board level, put that into context there how they would go about an audit of

and that goal eleven should be a tentative

