Expectations Regarding Committee Member Behavior

- Make every effort to attend every meeting, to arrive on time, and to be prepared.
- If you know you must be absent, advise the committee support staff in advance.

- Recognize that the chief function of PPS at all times is to serve the best interest of all its students.
- Refrain from activities which undermine public confidence.
- Be respectful of all people at all times.

Violation of these committee rules of conduct will result first in a written warning and may ultimately result in removal from the committee.
